1. Mission. The Air National Guard Readiness Center (ANGRC) supports the Director, Air National Guard (ANG); ensures readiness of ANG units to execute Federal missions and domestic operations; and maintains administrative control (ADCON) of all ANG members operating under Title 10 USC worldwide.

2. Organization:

2.1. The ANGRC is part of the Office of the Director, ANG, and together function as the Air Force component of the joint National Guard Bureau.

2.2. The 201st Mission Support Squadron is subordinate to the ANGRC. It provides base operating support and maintains administrative control (ADCON) of all ANG members operating under Title 10 USC worldwide with the exception of ANG personnel on statutory tours of duty assigned or attached to the ANGRC.

3. Command Relationships.

3.1. The Commander of the ANGRC (ANGRC/CC) is under the authority, direction and supervision of the Director, ANG.

3.2. The Commander of the 201st Mission Support Squadron is under the authority, direction and supervision of ANGRC/CC, and also serves as the Vice Commander of the ANGRC.

4. Responsibilities.

4.1. The Commander, ANGRC shall:

- 4.1.1. Organize the functional areas and staff of the ANGRC to support the Director, ANG.
 - 4.1.2. Support the Director, ANG in responding to the Secretary of the Air Force's execution of his statutory authority and responsibilities under Title 10 USC and Title 32 USC.
 - 4.1.3. Maintain administrative control (ADCON) of all ANG members operating under Title 10 USC prior to full mobilization.
 - 4.1.4. Maintain administrative control (ADCON) of ANG personnel assigned or attached to the ANGRC on statutory tours of duty.
 - 4.1.5. Ensure timely and accurate staff actions to support operations, modernization, changes to force structure, training, readiness and execution of Air Force programs that affect the ANG, as well as ANG programs undertaken on behalf of and under the oversight of the Director, ANG.
 - 4.1.6. Serve as the ANG's staff channel of communication on Service matters to the ANG units in the States, Secretary of the Air Force, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, and staff elements of Headquarters, Air Force.
 - 4.1.7. Advise Air Force MAJCOM's and FOA's, and the National Guard headquarters of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia on operational and training matters affecting ANG units, including organization, policies, facilities, systems, tactics, force structure, resources, and deployment of ANG forces.
 - 4.1.8. Communicate regularly with the ANG staff integrated with the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), Headquarters, Air Force, Air Force MAJCOM's and other agencies, and provide updates of the current stance of senior leadership on issues impacting the ANG.
 - 4.1.9. Ensure ANG representation and participation in the ANG and Air Force Corporate management structures, for the planning, programming, budget and execution (PPBE) process.
 - 4.1.10. Ensure timely, accurate, accountable, and documented execution of the AF budget allocated to the ANG for operations and maintenance.
 - 4.1.11. Ensure timely, accurate, accountable and documented execution of the National Guard and Reserve Equipment Account (NGREA) funds provided by Congress for modernizing ANG weapons systems and acquisition of specialized capabilities for domestic operations.
 - 4.1.12. Ensure close coordination between the ANG Crisis Action Team (CAT), the Air Force CAT, Air Force MAJCOM CATs, the National Guard Coordination Center (NGCC), and the command posts of ANG units during on-going combat operations and Federal or State domestic operations.
 - 4.1.13. Provide for continuity of operations (COOP) of the functions of the ANGRC during crisis and contingency operations.
- 4.2. The Commander, 201st Mission Support Squadron shall:

4.2.1. Organize the functions and staff of the Mission Support Squadron to provide base operating support for the ANGRC and administrative control (ADCON) of ANG members serving in Title 10 USC status worldwide on behalf of ANGRC/CC.

4.2.2. Develop, administer and maintain the processes and procedures supporting ANG members serving in Title 10 USC status worldwide.
